

Social welfare committee/Child welfare committee

Case worker: name and tel. no.

FOLLOW-UP REPORT concerning a child born abroad

Date

Particulars concerning the child

Original name of child	Date of birth	Sex
		<input type="checkbox"/> Boy <input type="checkbox"/> Girl
Swedish name of child
Child arrived from	Date of arrival in Sweden
Names of child's prospective parents by adoption
Address
Previous address (where relevant)
Date of home visit	No. months child has been with family

Report

This report should give as clear and detailed a picture as possible of the child's adjustment and current situation in the family. If the following arrangement is complied with, the structure and content of the report will be plain to the reader.

1 Description of the child's physical development. Changes in the child's height and weight and eating habits. The child's motor development. Illnesses, if any, after arrival and the present physical state of the child.

2 Description of the child's mental development. Problems connected with the child's adjustment to its new surroundings. Intellectual development, linguistic development, any special interests.

3 The child's relationship to its surroundings. Contact with parents and other children in the family, relatives, teachers and friends. Emotional development.

4 Major events. Changes in the family, changes of address, travel etc.

5 Pronouncement. The investigating officer's general impressions of the family and appraisal of the child's situation.

Ex officio

(Signature of Social Welfare Officer)